TOWERSEY TIM EDEY STANDING OVATION

Tim brings remarkable musical virtuosity, along with his effervescent performance, engaging personality and a sense of fun – combining this with a show that celebrates the music of both the Celtic, folk tradition's plus exciting gypsy jazz, classical, acoustic + pretty much any style of music that Tim feels like at the time.

"Tim sits between Donal Lunny and Steve Cooney... yes he's that good!" PETE FYFE FOLKING.COM

In 2023 Tim played headline shows at major festivals including Priddy, Broadstairs, Warwick, BLAS, Celtic Connections, Celtic Colours (Canada) and many more...

A fine singer in his own right too, here is "Winds & Tides" from Towersey 23

Song – Winds & Tides

"One of the world's best melodeon players" Mike Harding

Pressed for time – Tim Edey - Melodeon

Tim needs no introduction to lovers of folk, roots and Celtic music, having performed with most of the major names in Irish and Scottish music, as a performer in his own right, a go-to musician for the likes of The Chieftains (2011-2019) and Sharon Shannon, Carlos Nunez and Session A9 or his collaborations with a range of friends, such as renowned Scottish piper Ross Ainslie and Kiwi harmonica maestro Brendan Power, plus legends such as Mike McGoldrick and Dougie McLean. Receiving a BBC Radio Folk Award 2012 and winning the BBC Scotland

BBC ALBA/SCOTLAND Musician of the Year in 2020 + BBC R2 FOLK AWARDS MUSICIAN OF THE YEAR 2012 are just two of his many accolades and confirmation of his standing in the industry with many more nominations.

A brand new album of songs and instrumental dexterity is due out in Spring 2024
